where in Estonia?

Tallinn – European Green Capital 2023

- + UNESCO heritage sites beside ever evolving new districts
- + constant renewal
- + alternative view on the old town scape: from a sailboat
- + beaches and green areas to chill

New Tallinn: Rotermann, Noblessner and Telliskivi

- + industrial settings with new life
- + shops, restaurants, galleries, terraces
- + close to the harbour and to old town
- + attractions: Museum of Estonian Architecture in Rotermann, Fotografiska in Telliskivi and Proto in Noblessner

The Culture Capital of Europe 2024: Tartu

- + capital of culture: Arts of Survival
- + university town: lively scene of student hangouts
- + center for creative and scientific culture
- + bohemian wooden districts and colourful character
- + impressive Estonian National Museum
- + 2,5h from Tallinn, bus or train

Island feeling

Saaremaa island: Ösel

- + coastal Estonians: Viking history rewritten
- + windmills and meteorite craters
- + Kuressaare town and castle
- + wellness hotels and charming farmhouse stays
- + tranquility and sustainable way of life

Muhu island

- + connected by bridge to Saaremaa
- + fishermen villages
- + hidden cute restaurants
- + horseback riding and fishing
- + the pearl of Pädaste Manor

Island varia

- + walk to Vilsandi or Kuradi saar
- + Ruhnu – very remote, singing sands
- + sailing
- + early morning fishing tours

Islands near Tallinn:

- + Aegna – belongs to Tallinn City, same public transport ticket valid for a ferry to the island
- + Prangli – coastal beauty and seal watching
- + Naissaar – beautiful nature + military history
- + Pakri – off with a kayak to all the natural nomads

National Parks

An aerial photograph of a serene lake surrounded by a dense forest of tall, thin trees. The water is a deep, clear blue. In the middle of the lake, two people are on paddleboards. One person is standing on a blue and white board, while the other is on a similar board further to the right. The shoreline is covered in green grass and small trees, with a path visible in the upper left.

- + Soomaa... the biggest, great for canoeing and the 5th season
- + Lahemaa... just a hop away from the capital
- + Vilsandi... fields of wild orchids, island beauty
- + Matsalu... ideal for birdwatching
- + Karula... in the south, wild rivers and deep forests
- + Alutaguse... for spotting bears outdoor top6

- + wildlife spotting and birdwatching tours
- + bog / snow shoe hike
- + cycling: e-bikes, fatbikes etc
- + canoeing, SUP boarding and kayaking
- + cross country skiing
- + golf (great golf courses)

to all the flavour seekers
